

E-commerce Sales Analysis Report

Data Source

Kaggle Data set

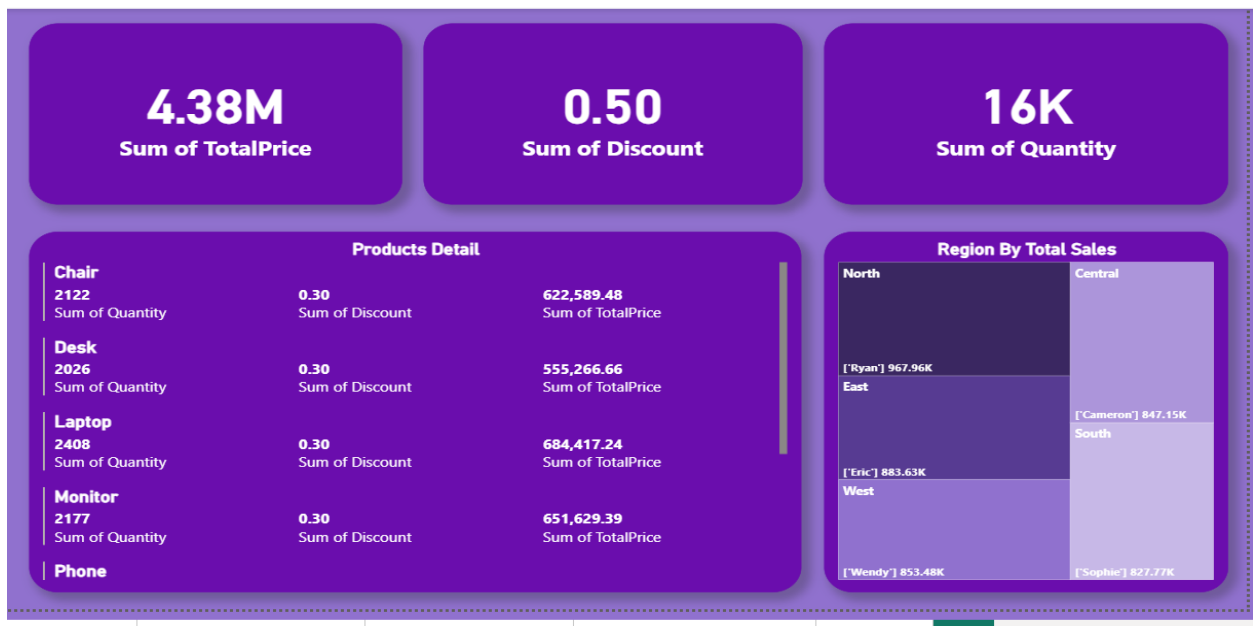

Objective

The objective of this report is to analyze sales performance, customer behavior, regional trends, and operational efficiency to support data-driven business decisions.

Dashboard Pages

Pictures of the dashboards and insights are given below

Sales Summary

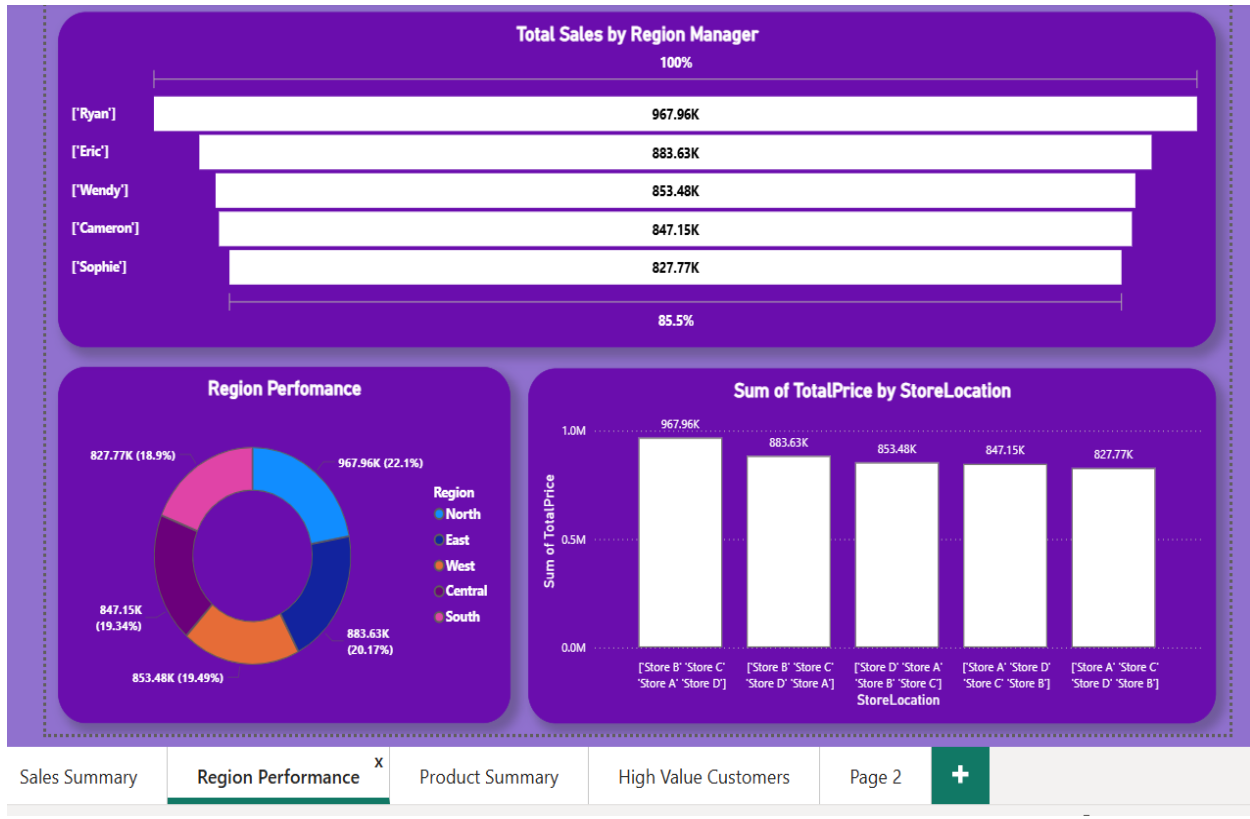

“Sales summary shows overall business performance”

Visuals:

- KPI cards
- Multi rows card
- Tree map for regional based sales

Region Performance

Region analysis highlights that Region North contributes the highest sales, while Region South underperforms. Region East, West, Central are also doing well performance. There are Five regions we have and each of region has a regional manager. Ryan is the manager of North region while Sophie is a manger of south, Cameron is manager of central, Eric is a manager of East and wendy is a manager of West.

Visuals:

- Funnel
- Donut chart
- Stacked column chart

Product Summary Promotion impact And Sales Person Performance

The analysis indicates that Tablets generated the highest revenue among all product categories, while Phones recorded comparatively lower revenue. Other product categories, including Printers, Monitors, Laptops, Desks, and Chairs, also performed well and contributed significantly to overall revenue.

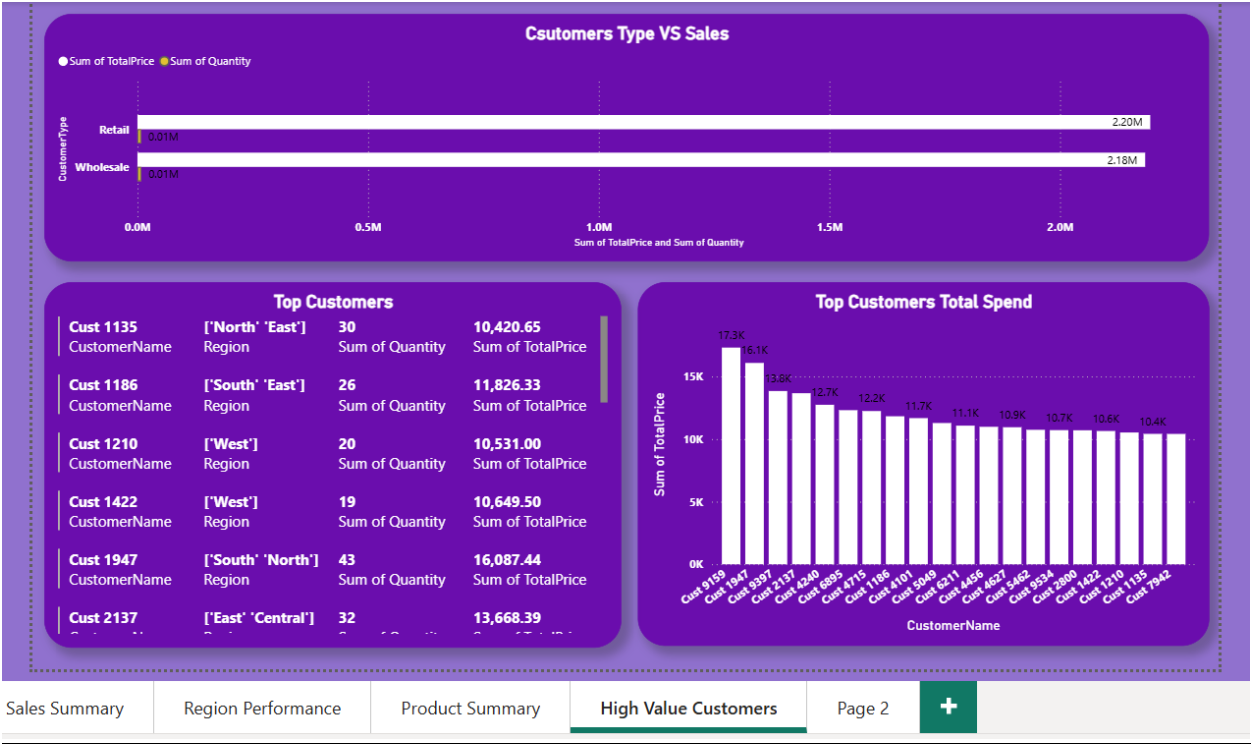

Promotional campaigns had a strong positive impact on sales. The Free Shipping promotion proved to be the most effective, generating 1.24M in sales. This was followed by the Winter 15 promotion, which resulted in 1.08M in sales, and the Save 10 promotion, contributing 0.99M in sales.

In terms of salesperson performance, Bob led with 0.80M in total sales. Alice closely followed with 0.79M in sales. Frank and Carlos each achieved 0.71M, while Eva recorded 0.70M and Diana achieved 0.68M in total sales.

Visuals:

- Clustered bar chart
- Multi rows card
- Clustered bar chart

High Value Customers (Top customers)

The analysis highlights the top 20 customers who demonstrated strong spending behavior and contributed significantly to overall revenue. Customer spending was notably higher in the South, North, and Central regions compared to other regions.

When analyzing customer types, both Retail and Wholesale customers showed strong and nearly equal revenue contributions. In terms of sales volume, Retail customers purchased a total quantity of 7,680 units, while Wholesale customers recorded a slightly higher quantity of 7,936 units, indicating balanced performance across both customer segments.

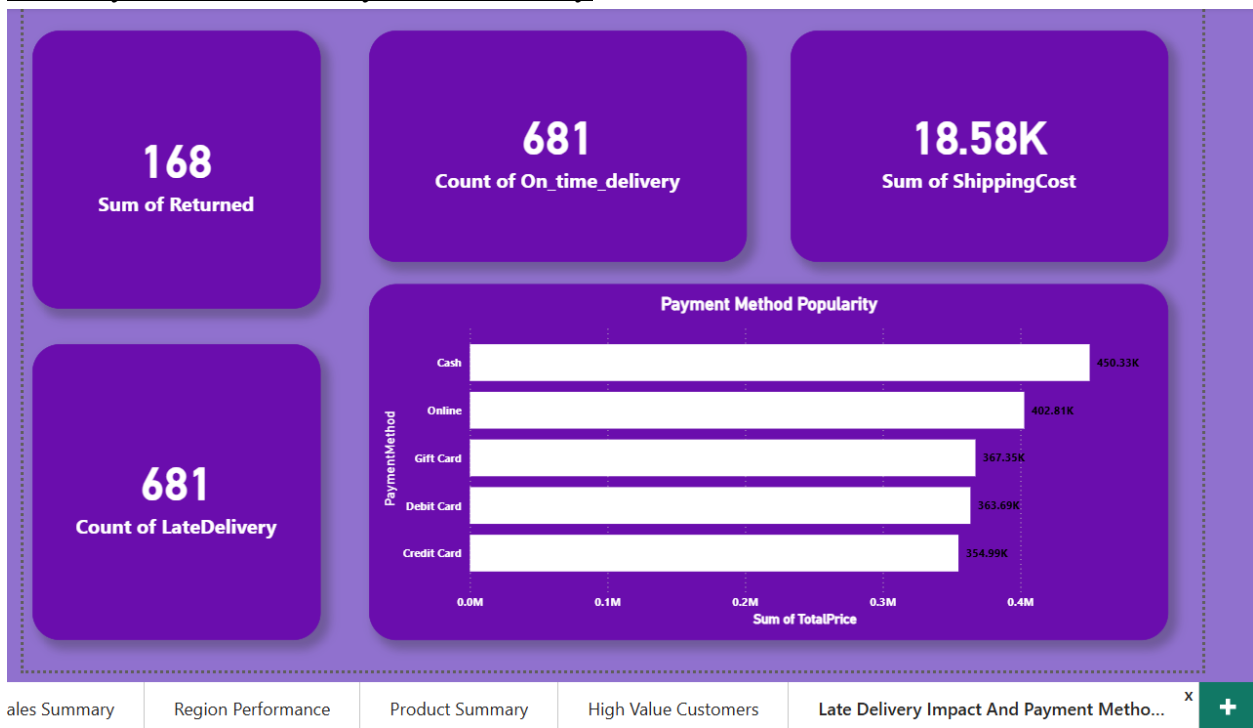

Visuals:

Clustered bar chart

Multi rows card

Clustered bar chart

Delivery, Returns, and Payment Summary

The analysis shows that a total of 168 items were returned. Delivery performance was evenly distributed, with 681 orders delivered on time and 681 orders delivered late. The total shipping cost amounted to 18.58K.

Regarding payment methods, Cash was the most frequently used payment option and accounted for the highest number of transactions. Online payments ranked as the second most preferred method. Other payment options, including Gift Cards, Debit Cards, and Credit Cards, showed nearly equal usage, indicating a balanced distribution among these methods.

Visuals:

Card

Clustered bar chart

Key Findings:

- Strong regions
- Profitable products
- High-value customers
- Preferred payment methods

Recommendations:

- Improve low-performing regions
- Focus on high-margin products
- Retain high-value customers
- Reduce late deliveries
- Promote digital payments

Prepared by

Ubaidah Khan

Junior Data Analyst